

Jewish Genealogical Society of Montreal

in association with the Jewish Public Library

proudly presents

Johanne Pelletier, Director of the McGill University Archives

who will review the key preservation do's and don'ts for managing your own family records and show highlights of the McGill University Archives collections.

“History Detectives: A Primer on Keeping Archives”

Prior to joining McGill University in 1997, Ms Pelletier was Ontario's Archives Advisor, providing record keeping advice to over 500 public and private sector organizations.

Ms Pelletier is a regular speaker to archives and records management organizations in the United States and Canada and is currently member of the International Council of Archives Committee on Archival Legal Matters.
