JEWISH GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF MONTREAL

in association with the

JEWISH PUBLIC LIBRARY

is pleased to announce as our guest speakers:

JUDY & MYER GORDON

“Four Hundred Brothers & Sisters - a Story of Two Jewish Orphanages in Montreal - 1902 - 1942”

*Judy (Gold-Asch) Gordon, tells of 2 Jewish orphanages, open from 1909-1942.
Her husband, Myer Gordon, lived in one of the Homes for 10 years”*

Their two books are endorsed by Archivists, Librarians, Social Workers, and University Professors, who agree on the importance of getting this portion of Montreal's history out to local and national archives and libraries, to school and the Jewish community...their reunions still attract former residents, spouses, children and grandchildren.
