presents:

David Reich

“Reliving Our Lives – Past & Present” – My Family Research and its History.

David Reich was born and seasoned in Montreal.

He abandoned a 60 year career as an architect in many countries to enjoy the pleasures and disappointments of writing.

Mr. Reich has done family research, with an unusual and creative family tree to prove it. During his reclining years he self-published ten books and convinced an unsuspecting editor to issue his latest opus.

He will also be signing copies of his book,

“You Could Lose an Eye – my first 80 years in Montreal”, an account of his family history, written in his extraordinarily clever and humorous style.
