in association with the

JEWISH PUBLIC LIBRARY

are pleased to announce as our featured speaker:

Bill Gladstone

“The Jews of Old Toronto – mid-1800’s to 1950 – From the Ward to Spadina Avenue”

Bill Gladstone, a well known genealogist, author, Canadian Jewish News arts columnist and past president of the JGS of Canada (Toronto), is the author of ‘Roots and Remembrance’ and ‘One Hundred Years in Canada: the Rubinfon-Naftolin Family Tree’, also of two forthcoming books, a history of Toronto's Beth Tzedec Congregation and a history of the Jewish community of London, Ontario.

Bill is head of the publishing company, Now and Then Books, which has published several titles relating to the history of the Jews of Toronto and Canada. Mr. Gladstone will be signing his books this evening.
