

Jewish Genealogical Society of Montreal
presents Nancy Levin

Port Cities

Impacts on Tracing Your Roots

How did your immigrant ancestors travel to the place they eventually called home? Why did they make those choices? If they stopped along the way, did they leave records behind?

December 6 at 7:30 pm
<https://youtu.be/2Fz439iX2F8>

Nancy C. Levin, CG® has been a professional genealogist specializing in 19th and 20th century Jewish family history for almost 30 years. She has lectured at many IAJGS conferences, traced families from numerous countries, and authored two chapters in the Avotaynu Guide to Jewish Genealogy.